

Phil Griffiths

Independent Director

 +61.412.559.347

 pgriffiths@calderwood.ky

Mr. Griffiths serves as an independent director at Calderwood, where he accepts appointments on the boards of investment funds and related structures, advising on corporate governance and regulatory compliance. Mr. Griffiths leads Calderwood's Asia Pacific practice.

Before joining Calderwood Mr. Griffiths was a founding member and Executive Chairman of JP Integra Group where he was instrumental in building an international fund services business across Europe, Asia and the Americas, between 2011 and 2018 he served as director of JP Fund Administration (Cayman) Ltd, a CIMA regulated fund administration company and has worked in the investment fund industry since 2008. Prior to JP Integra Mr. Griffiths worked as a Financial Markets senior executive in Europe, Asia and Australasia with Exco International/ICAP, Thomson Reuters and Saxo Bank.

Mr. Griffiths' career in regulated markets has spanned over 30 years giving him a unique perspective on the changing regulatory environment, he has represented his companies at the Wholesale Brokers Association and the Bank of England's London Foreign Exchange Joint Standing Committee.

With a deep knowledge and understanding of offshore fund structures and their administration as well as Foreign Exchange, Equity and Capital Markets Mr. Griffiths has been an invaluable asset to fund managers and their investors. Mr. Griffiths has served on the board of numerous Cayman Islands and other jurisdiction companies and accepts appointments on the boards of investment funds and related structures.